

Rochester Dahlia Society

The Rochester Dahlia Society (RDS), a non-profit organization, provides Western New York dahlia lovers with local expertise in growing and showing dahlias throughout the year. Each September, RDS produces an annual dahlia show in which club members and growers from across New York and surrounding areas bring their best dahlia blooms to exhibit. RDS also offers events including exclusive dahlia garden tours, tuber swaps, workshops and more.

RDS meetings are held on the second Saturday of most months at the Trinity Reformed Church and are also accessible via Zoom. For scheduled meetings and more information, visit us at <https://www.rochesterdahlias.org>. RDS has a presence on Facebook and Instagram as the Rochester Dahlia Society. RDS is also a participating member of the American Dahlia Society (ADS). To learn more about ADS, please visit their website: <https://www.dahlia.org>.
